

EVENTS

Meaningfulness at work

Tuesday 13 December, 2016

Venue: Broadway House, Tothill Street, London, SW1H 9NQ

Facilitators: Luke Fletcher and Dilys Robinson

Programme

- 09.30 Registration and refreshments
- 09.45 Welcome, introductions and scene-setting
Dilys Robinson, Principal Associate, Institute for Employment Studies
- 10.15 'What makes work meaningful, and what can employers do?'
Professor Katie Bailey, Department of Business and Management, University of Sussex
- 11.00 Coffee break
- 11.15 Meaningfulness intervention: research findings
Dr Luke Fletcher, Lecturer in Human Resource Management, Aston Business School, Aston University
- 12.00 Putting the research into practice: views of research participants, followed by group discussions
Dilys Robinson
- 12.45 Lunch

HR Network bookings and enquiries

E: gwen.leeming@employment-studies.co.uk; T: 01273 763433 www.employment-studies.co.uk/network

ies